The young actors at Yosemite High School are rehearsing for their upcoming play, The Diary of Anne Frank.

The play will run on Nov. 3, 4, and 5 at 7 p.m. and Nov. 5 at 2 p.m. in the YHS Performing Arts Center.

Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for students.

Teacher and director Lars Thorson has been working with his students, preparing for the play. A few of his students showed their dedication to the performance and spent some time during their fall break rehearsing at Oakhurst Community Park.

Stage manager Leah Clement and her fellow actors and senior classmates went through a few lines and scenes from the upcoming play The Diary of Anne Frank.

Jessica Tyson (Mrs. Kraler), Korina Gutierrez (Anne Frank) and Ali Watt (Mrs. Van Dann) met with Clement at the park gazebo.

They showed their dedication by gathering on a beautiful fall day during their vacation to practice their parts.

"The play examines the lives of eight Jews who hide from the Nazis during World War II," Thorson said.

"Despite their terrible living conditions, we see them laugh, learn and go on with their lives.

"Using multi-media elements and music, the play brings real people and real events to life."
