The Yosemite High School Chamber Singers brought home a superior rating from the California State University Fresno Choral Festival and the Treble Ensemble came home with an excellent rating.

Superior is the highest ranking available and excellent is next.

The festival was held Oct. 20 at CSUF.

Students came from throughout the Central Valley and from other parts of the state as well, including San Marino and Compton.

YHS Choral Director Dr. Tony Mowrer said for the students to do this well this early in the year is "a significant accomplishment."

He noted that they received similar rankings last year and it is significant for them to continue to perform at these levels.

"I'm very proud of the students," he said .

"They have worked hard and are deserving of all the praise they can get."

He says the students will continue to get better as the year progresses.

There are 21 students in the Chamber Singers and 24 in the Treble Ensemble.
