John Reynolds, a member of the Coarsegold Union School District Board of Trustees and the newly formed Yosemite Joint Unified School District Board of Trustees, has accepted an appointment to serve on the California School Boards Association 2006 Small School Districts Council.

This council serves as the voice within CSBA for board members and superintendents from small school districts. The council provides advice on critical policy and legislative issues, as well as on other public education and school governance matters.

The council meets approximately three to four times a year in West Sacramento.

Reynolds, a resident of Coarsegold, has been on the CUSD Board since 1987. He was elected to the YUSD Board last November for a one-year term.

Reynolds has served on state-wide commissions, task forces and committees during his time on the CUSD Board.

He has earned his master's degree in boardsmanship from CSBA.
