

A time for singing

(Updated Thursday, March 23, 2006, 11:49 AM)

Members of the Yosemite High School Choir performed in the YHS Performing Arts Center Wednesday for the two-day California Music Educator's Association (CMEA) Choir Festival, which began Tuesday. "There is a competition nature to the festival but it is more a matter of the students performing so the judges can listen and give us suggestions on how we can improve," said YHS Choral Director Dr. Tony Mowrer. This is the first time YHS has hosted the event. It is normally held at Sierra High School in Tollhouse. More than 11 schools, 27 choirs and 1,000 students attended the festival.
