The former Badgers' boys of summer will be on hand at the Yosemite High School baseball facility on Saturday. At 12:30 p.m. the first pitch will be thrown and the fourth annual Yosemite High School baseball alumni game will officially be under way. The heroes of yesteryear will be in the dugouts ready to renew their friendly rivalry and entertain the fans in attendance.

The day's festivities will begin with the unvailing of a new alumni-major league drafted players sign and then the ceremonial first pitch.

The game will feature alums Ted Lilly, Eric Stolp, Dayton Buller, Daniel Buller, Corey Miller and Mikela Olsen, all of whom were drafted by Major League Baseball.
